Art to help dogs in need

I live in the most southern region of Portugal, the Algarve and after many years of painting, I felt that it was time to do something meaningful with my art. So, I decided to combine two things close to my heart – being creative and helping abandoned dogs.

Together we can make a difference!

Please be aware that actual colours may vary slightly due to photographic lighting sources or monitor settings.

I don't know if it's just me getting older, but lately I've been thinking more about what really matters in life. Time feels so precious and those small moments of calm and happiness mean so much.

That's what inspired my October painting,

"Beautiful Morning" is about that peaceful feeling of sitting by a lake with your first cup of coffee, just being there and soaking it all in.

I also added a little layer of golden sparkle that catches the light beautifully, though it's hard to show in photos. I made a short video so you can hopefully see it!

Can you spot it?
